"... so Eve ate some of the fruit. Then she also gave some to her husband, Adam, who was with her, and he ate it. Immediately, their eyes were opened, and they suddenly felt shame at their nakedness. So they sewed fig leaves together to cover up themselves. Then they heard the Lord walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from God among the trees. But God called out to Adam, 'Where are you?' Adam replied, 'I heard you coming and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid.'...Adam said, 'You gave me this woman and she gave me the fruit, so I ate it.' Then God said to Eve, 'Why did you do this?' Eve replied, 'The serpent deceived me, and I ate it.'...So God said to Eve, " (Because you disobeyed me) you'll have greater trouble in pregnancy and great pain in childbirth. And though you'll desire your husband, he's going to lord it over you." Then God said to Adam, "Because you also disobeyed me and sinned with your wife, the ground you work is now cursed. And though you'll get to eat what you planted, your fields will have weeds, and thorns and thistles, and for the rest of your life you'll have to sweat and work hard to get your food until you yourself are returned to the dirt that I used to create you." – Genesis 3:6-19 (NIV)
