BROKEN & CHANGED: CALL ME JOB IF YOU HAVE NOTHING GOOD TO SAY...

"After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth. He said: "May the day of my birth perish, and the night that said, 'A boy is conceived!' That day—may it turn to darkness; may God above not care about it; may no light shine on it.... That night—may thick darkness seize it; may it not be included among the days of the year nor be entered in any of the months...."Why did I not perish at birth, and die as I came from the womb?...For now I would be lying down in peace;...Or why was I not hidden away in the ground like a stillborn child, like an infant who never saw the light of day?...For sighing has become my daily food; my groans pour out like water. What I feared has come upon me; what I dreaded has happened to me. I have no peace, no quietness; I have no rest, but only turmoil."
– Job 3:1-26

A spirit glided past my face, and the hair on my body stood on end. It stopped, but I could not tell what it was. A form stood before my eyes, and I heard a hushed voice...."*

You say to God, 'My beliefs are flawless and I am pure in your sight.' Oh, how I wish that God would speak, that he would open his lips against you and disclose to you the secrets of wisdom, for true wisdom has two sides .Know this: God has even forgotten some of your sin."*
