- יָדָה [יָדָה] – “to revere or worship with _____; to throw a _____ (or an _____)”

“We have heard it with our ears, O God; our ancestors have told us what you did in their days, in days long ago. With your hand you drove out the nations and planted our ancestors; you crushed the peoples and made our ancestors flourish. It was not by their sword that they won the land, nor did their arm bring them victory; it was your right hand, your arm, and the light of your face, for you loved them. You are my King and my God, who decrees[c] victories for Jacob. Through you we push back our enemies; through your name we trample our foes. I put no trust in my bow, my sword does not bring me victory; but you give us victory over our enemies, you put our adversaries to shame. In God we make our boast all day long, and we will praise your name forever”

— Psalm 44:1-8

“Because your love is better than life, my lips will glorify you. I will praise you as long as I live, and in your name I will lift up my hands.”

— Psalm 63:3-4

“Hear my cry for mercy as I call to you for help, as I lift up my hands toward your Most Holy Place.”

— Psalm 28:2

“I desire then that in every place the men should pray, lifting holy hands without anger or quarreling.”

— 1 Timothy 2:8 (ESV)

“And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But when Christ[b] had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.”

— Hebrews 10:1-14 (ESV)
